The Pastor's Reflections

We're going to reflect on Matthew's account of the storm at sea. He begins his narrative with a quick introduction. "After he had fed the people, Jesus made his disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side (of the lake) while he dismissed the crowd" (Matthew 4:22). Look closely at this introductory statement. Jesus had just performed an incredible miracle. He fed five thousand men, not counting the women and children, with five loaves of bread and two fish and, after everyone had eaten, there was enough food to fill twelve baskets with what was left over. But immediately after the left over food had been collected Jesus MADE his disciples leave the scene. He directed them to get into a boat and go to the opposite side of the lake. He remained behind to dismiss the crowd. Why would Jesus want to separate himself from his disciples?

If we look to another account of the multiplication of the loaves and fish we can come up with an interesting answer. "When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, 'Truly this is the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world.' Since Jesus knew that they were going to carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone" (John 6:14-15).

We have to remember that the Jewish population was not happy under Roman rule. Periodic insurrections occurred and were brutally suppressed. The feeding of the five thousand could have stoked up the people's hope that Jesus was indeed the messiah who would lead Israel to independence. Matthew reported an incident involving James and John. Their mother came to Jesus pleading that they be placed in the two top positions of his kingdom. (Matthew 20:20-28) The other Gospels also report the disciples bickering over which one of them would take a place of honor in Jesus' kingdom. They, along with the people, expected Jesus to set up a Jewish kingdom that would be free of Roman domination. This miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish could have become dangerously political.

Jesus dismissed his disciples demanding that they meet him on the other side of the lake because he most likely feared that they would become intoxicated by the people's excitement. His kingdom wasn't an earthly kingdom at all. There would be no conquering armies. There would be no first or second in command.

Jesus' kingdom, the new Israel, would be built on the foundation of the old Israel, and would continue to be nurtured by God. More profoundly, perhaps, the twelve baskets of bread and fish that were left over represented God's first gift to all those who would internalize the kingdom, Jew and Gentile alike. Jesus' kingdom would conquer the world through self-sacrifice and loving hearts.

While Jesus walked along the shore of the lake to meet with the disciples, they were in their boat making little headway because of the strong wind of a sudden storm. Jesus had sent them away from the political storm, but another and more powerful storm struck them. It was a crisis of faith.

It was the fourth watch of the night when the storm was at its strongest. The night was divided into four watches. The fourth watch was between 3 am and 6 am. This was considered the "darkest" time of the night. Even today, the night shift in a hospital is called the "death" shift.

Though the kingdom was to be built on self-giving and loving hearts, it doesn't mean that Jesus' disciples would cruise through life continually enjoying the sun and fine weather. The disciple had to have a strong faith in Jesus. This incident at sea testified that he would continue to journey with them even through the darkest of times and the strongest of storms.

Consumed by their fear, the disciples couldn't believe that Jesus was walking toward them oblivious of the strong wind and the rough sea. Instead of being joyful upon seeing him they feared him, thinking that he was a ghost. But he broke through their fear by encouraging Peter to walk on the water with him. Peter did walk on the water until his faith weakened and the sea began to swallow him. But Jesus reached out to him. A mere touch of his hand was enough to save him.

John's Gospel relates a powerful teaching that Jesus presented at the Last Supper, one we must never forget. "In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world" (John 16:33b). We will all face storms. Not one of us will go through life without experiencing upheavals and crises. Sometimes even our lives or the lives of people we love may be in danger of being swallowed up by the dark waters of the world. Our faith is the only thing that will save us. We must always look beyond the storms that will come. We must, as true and committed disciples, keep our eyes focused on the kingdom Jesus promised because our faith is the leaven that Jesus mixes into the darkness of the world. Eventually it will grow. Eventually it will conquer the world transforming it into the kingdom "so that God may be all in all" (1 Corinthians 15:28b).

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

The Sunday collection amounted to $ 4,247.00
ParishPay amounted to $ 1,437.82

Total: $5,684.82

The collection for the Propagation of the Faith amounted to: $429.00

RED ALERT: Please keep St. Jean's in mind when you travel or vacation. We rent every possible space in the complex in order to make up for our yearly shortfall. The weekly collection barely covers half the Parish expenses. When our collection dips below $10,000 we feel a terrible strain on our cash flow. Please commit to the support of the parish. Thank you.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

On November 1, 1950 Pope Pius XII declared the dogma of the Assumption of Mary proclaiming that the Virgin Mary, “having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory” (Munificentissimus Deus, the Papal Bull defining the dogma).

In the United States this feast is celebrated as a holy day of obligation on August 15th. As we contemplate Mary being taken to heaven we reflect on our destiny to follow her into heavenly glory. We encourage everyone to celebrate this feast day by joining the community at the table of the Eucharist, the foretaste and promise of the heavenly banquet God has prepared for each of us. Mary has led the way; we are called to follow.

RELIGIOUS LIFE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH 2017

As very young children, my brother and I would dress up and play we were a priest and religious sister. At the time who would have thought that the pretend would become a reality for both of us!

I feel very fortunate to have been educated in my elementary, high school, and college years by three different communities of Religious Sisters. Although I did have a slight yearning in high school that I was being called by God to a religious vocation, I was not sure and pursued my college degree. I enjoyed dating during my high school and college years, but always felt like there was something missing. In my senior year of college, I began to feel more deeply God’s invitation to Religious Life. Although as I mentioned, I had sisters from three different communities, once I said, “Yes” to God’s invitation, the choice of which community I would enter was already made ~ the Congregation of Notre Dame, the Sisters who taught me at Saint Jean Baptiste High School.

For many years after my Profession, I had the joy of teaching all the academic subjects to youngsters in the Primary Grades. Several of those years, I prepared the children for the reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist, which I felt was a real privilege. Community leadership asked me to assume the role of Assistant Principal, which I did for a number of years in two different schools.

My ministry for the past ten years has been as Administrative Assistant in the Office of the Permanent Diaconate at Saint Joseph Seminary. In my role, I have been fortunate to assist two married Permanent Deacons. One Deacon is the Director of the Diaconate Formation Program, for the men preparing to become Deacons. It is a five year program, emphasizing five aspects ~ human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral. Once the men are ordained to the Sacred Order of Deacon, they are under the direction of the second Deacon I assist, the Director of Ministry and Life.

After celebrating 56 years of Religious Profession, I have never regretted my “Yes,” to God’s invitation. Have there been difficult times in my life ~ of course! But God never abandoned me. He has always walked beside me or carried me when I was not able to journey on my own.

No matter what our walk in life, God continues to call each of us daily to greater love, fidelity, and service assuring us of His unconditional love of each of us, His children.

Monday, August 14, 2017 – Vigil of the Feast of Assumption

In his August, 2004 homily given at Lourdes, Pope John Paul II quoted John 14:3 from the Bible as a scriptural basis for understanding the dogma of the Assumption of Mary, where Christ, in his Last Supper discourses, explained that "When I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am, there you may be also". Mary is the pledge of the fulfillment of Christ's promise.

RENEW AND REBUILD CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

We're underway! We've signed contracts with PASCOM SOUND to conclude the upgrading of the sound system in the church. This involves a great deal of digital programming, and the installation of two major speakers (one is 15 feet long and the other 7 feet), and replacing and repositioning the present speakers in the church. This has a price tag of $59,985. We're budgeting an additional $10,000 for electrical work. The school auditorium is getting a completely new system. We've budgeted $75,000 for the sound system and electrical work.

Both the church and the auditorium are daunting projects because of the amount of reverberation in both spaces. The church has the additional challenge of the many columns that interfere with the streaming of direct sound. To address that issue, we're going to add new speakers on the columns.

We don't have a date for the installation work yet. We've given a down payment of $40,000 to purchase the speakers from the manufacturer.

A sidewalk bridge has been erected along 76th street. Over the next few weeks we'll be scaffolding the dome in preparation for some stone repair at the base of the cooper roof, and the recaulking, painting and sealing of the 12 stained glass windows. The construction of the scaffold will take about a month, the window and stonework about 6 weeks, and another month to take down the scaffold. (That's if everything goes as planned. Enough said!) The down payment for the scaffolding was $100,000 with another $26,000 to be paid at the conclusion of the job. The window repair and restoration was estimated at $60,000. The stone work can't be estimated until the stone is inspected after the scaffold has been erected.

Finally, FELIX CHAVEZ, INC. is currently working in the vestibule of the church repainting parts of the walls that have been damaged over the years. The company is also restoring the exterior doors that aren't in good shape. They suffer from extensive exposure to rain and snow. This is a $25,000 project.

We thank everyone who donated to the 2016-17 RENEW AND REBUILD CAMPAIGN that the diocese initiated. We're presently waiting for the first check from the diocese, about $100,000. Concerned and generous parishioners give regularly for the maintenance of the church building. We managed to squirrel away $179,000 outside the RENEW AND REBUILD CAMPAIGN for restoration maintenance. We're using this money to jumpstart the present projects. Thank you for your stewardship and dedication to the maintenance of this architectural gem and monument to the Catholic faith.
