ACTS 5:27-32, 40B-41 REVELATIONS 5:11-14 JOHN 21:1-19

GATHER HYMNAL #957

The Pastor's Reflections

We continue reading accounts of the resurrection as we move through the Sundays of Easter. This Sunday brings us to the third account in John's Gospel. It takes place along the Sea of Tiberias (Sea of Galilee).

Once again, this account begins in the darkness of the night. The apostles are gathered near the Sea of Galilee. Peter announces that he's going to fish. The rest of the apostles join him bringing their torches. They row out about a hundred yards and begin casting their nets. They spend the entire night fishing but catch nothing.

As dawn begins to break, a voice calls out to them from the shore asking if they've caught any fish. They answer, no. The man then instructs them to throw their nets over the right side of the boat. They listen to his suggestion. Often enough, while casting their nets, fisherman would have someone on the shore looking over the clear water to spot the movement of a school of fish. It's very difficult for a fisherman to look into the water for fish while casting his net, hence, the need for a spotter.

To their joyful surprise they haul in a catch. Later when they bring the net to shore they count one hundred and fifty-three large fish! John, the disciple whom Jesus loved, and who looked into the tomb and “saw and believed,” shouts out that he recognizes the man. He’s Jesus! Peter, impetuous as ever, jumps into the water and swims to shore. There’s a strange scene awaiting him.

Jesus has built a fire and is cooking a fish. Along with the fish he has bread waiting for them. No one says anything. They know that it’s Jesus speaking to them but they’re in shock. “Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.”

This description of Jesus feeding his apostles is a Eucharistic image. The language is very similar to Saint Paul’s account of the Last Supper. “The Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. In the same way also the cup...’” (1 Corinthians 11:23-24) As we search for the deeper meaning of this account it’s important to keep a connection between what takes place during this “breakfast” and the Eucharist.

Let’s look over John’s entire account. It begins with Peter attempting his ministry to be “fishers of men.” However, he begins his work in the darkness of the night and so his attempt is fruitless. With the coming of the early morning light he heeds the call of Jesus to cast his net on the right side of the boat. The catch is incredible, one hundred and fifty-three large fish! The reference to the number of fish is symbolic. John often uses numerological references, here

$1+5+3 = 9$. Nine is a numerological symbol of the divine. John is telling us that this catch, taking place in the early morning light, isn’t the work of man – it’s God’s work.

John continues delving into the meaning of the event. At this early morning gathering of the children of light, more wonderful things take place. Peter, commissioned to be the rock and foundation, is in need of healing and forgiveness before he can assume his ministry. Three times he denied any knowledge of Jesus. So three times Jesus asks him: “Do you love me?” Three times Peter answers, “You know I love you.” Jesus’ answers forgive him, heal him, and anoint him for his ministry. “Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep! Follow me!”

This Sunday’s resurrection account once again, leads us to reflect on the Eucharist we’re celebrating. In this sacred gathering of the children of the light the risen Lord reveals himself. He feeds us and gives us himself, the bread of life. He heals us and forgives our sins. He anoints us so that we can assume the ministry he began.

The Sundays of Easter are a very special time. Each resurrection account is an invitation for us to open our hearts to the risen Lord. These are weeks of healing and anointing. These are the weeks we look into the empty tomb, when we see more clearly, when we believe more profoundly. These are the weeks we’re invited, like Peter, to become fishers of men.

Congratulations to our First Communicants!

Our registered parishioners have already received letters from Cardinal Dolan and me announcing the Appeal which begins every January and concludes after Easter.

This year our parish goal has been set at $103,000. So far, 87 parishioners have responded to the Appeal, and have donated $36,680.00. Thank you so much.

We encourage everyone to give something to the Appeal. The number of participants in the Appeal is more important than the amount we give. We love our parish and want to support our community first and foremost. At the same time, we're part of a greater community. That's why we have the Appeal each year – to support evangelical endeavors outside our parish by helping to fund parishes that are in financial trouble and to support the regional grade schools in the diocese.

If you haven't given to the Appeal before, seriously consider filling out a registration card and making a donation to this year's Appeal. Thank you for the powerful support you have given to the Parish of St. Jean Baptiste. Thank you in advance for your support of this year's Cardinal's Appeal.

–Fr. John

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM INTERCESSORY PRAYER GROUP

The Intercessory Prayer group will not be meeting on the following dates; April 28 and May 5. They will reconvene on May 12. In the meantime, if you will like to submit the names of friends or relatives who need prayers, you may bring your intentions to the parish office or email them to sjbrcc@yahoo.com

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

Sunday collection:	Checks: $ 8,010.00
	Cash: $ 2,880.00
	We Share: $ 1,465.00
	Total: $ 12,355.00

In general, our weekly giving has been going down.

We have gone as low as $7,000 in March. The result is that we are several payments behind on our monthly Archdiocesan tax of $30,000.

Once we start to slip it is very difficult to catch up. Our summer collections tend to be painfully low so we encourage you not to forget Saint Jean's when you go away on weeks and vacations. We have a little less than $500,000 in savings. We try very hard not to dip in. Our goal is to collect a minimum of $10,000 a week.

Some financial information:

The rental of our facilities helps us cover the remainder of our expenses: payroll, heating, electric, gas, telephone, insurance, diocesan assessments and repairs but it's not enough to enable us to put some money aside in any regular way.

ST. JEAN'S PLAYERS

The St. Jean's Players Spring production is "The Man Who Came to Dinner", the improbable but hilarious story of what happens when a world-famous celebrity is forced to recuperate from a broken hip in the home of a small-town middle-American family. Join The St. Jean's Players as they celebrate the 80th anniversary of this classic comedy by famed playwrights Kaufman and Hart, authors of the Pulitzer Prize winning "You Can't Take it With You."

Celebrating Mary under Two Titles –
Our Lady of Fatima and Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament in a Healing Mass

Monday, May 13, 2019
6:30 PM – Rosary // 7:00 PM- Mass

St. Jean Baptiste Church
76th St. and Lexington, NYC

O Most Holy Virgin Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, you were pleased to appear to the children of Fatima and reveal a glorious message. We implore you, inspire in our hearts a fervent love for the recitation of the Rosary. By meditating on the mysteries of the redemption that are recalled therein may we obtain the graces and virtues that we ask, through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer.

Virgin Immaculate, perfect lover of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, we ask you to obtain for us the graces we need to become true adorers of our Eucharistic God. Grant us, we beg of you, to know Him better, to love Him more, and to center our lives around the Eucharist, that is, to make our whole life a constant prayer of adoration, thanksgiving, reparation, and petition to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Amen.

Celebrant: Fr. John Kamas, S.S.S.
